Camp

Part of successful events is undoubtedly the festive camp. It is a daunting enclosure where each group of 50 that are Carthaginian and Romans, decorates a plot, whose home is in line with historical accuracy, installing in it a bar, with free admission and open to all, where you can taste tapas and liqueurs in the Shire. The camp becomes a citadel noctua set in antiquity, where art and symbols of Greece, Phoenician, Iberia, Rome and Carthago preside great decorations. This space can share the table with Scipio himself, eating wedding cake with Hannibal or witnessing the abduction of a beautiful maiden by the barbaric enemy.

During the ten days of festivities all groups perform a multitude of significant events within its plot and related to the history they represent. They also lunches and dinners orotherhood, so that there is life day and night. Among the most common stresses, such as that made by the legion Amazon with the burning of his queen or the inauguration of the new slingers from the Balearic Slingers troops.

Lobetania mercenaries have their night of wolves, the Warriors held their contest Uxama Sokatira (measurement of forces pulling on a rope), and the troops of Baal-Hammon Bes choose the order and impose his warriors rings. Nasciturus festive; request Stratum hand of the goddess; tribute to the Mare Nostrum, Bodas de Bes and Astarte; displays shooting sling, Druid invocation of the Gods, the oath of Mago, the omen of Baal are some actions that can witness throughout the night and week of the holidays, besides enjoying the funfair.

This campus has a service area on each side thereof, and has security forces such as national and local police, Red Cross, Civil Protection, a small hospital and security service within the organization. At the entrance of the camp is an information booth for anyone who needs it, in addition to telephone booths. Federation's own troops and legions laptop has an office inside the enclosure and press room. But the night goes on. In addition to these acts, contained in a formal program, we must add many impromptu events recalling skirmishes of the war taking place between food and drink. It also tends to devote a day to a big concert and performances in carp protocol.

The thousands of people come together in this camp remain there until the wee hours of the morning, although a few hours later have to be in their jobs. A busy week which has its pin with the shutdown of the sacred fire and a large fireworks display.
